MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT

Managed by Jno. B. Fish.

—There is a great deal of excitement in this county over the workings of the new whisky law.

—The "special grand jury" is in session at this place every day. It is principally composed of the county attorney.

—A crippled and deformed man named Durham attempted to commit suicide at Livingston the other day by shooting himself. He did not succeed.

—Mrs. Kate Roberts and daughter, of Harrodsburg, are visiting friends and relatives at this place. Capt. W. H. Spradlin, of Gallatin, Tenn., is visiting in this community.

—Persons who are indebted to me by store account or otherwise are hereby requested to call and settle same with cash or by note. My accounts will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection on the 1st of August, 1884. On that date I will close my books and do nothing but a strictly cash business. F. L. Thompson.

—The hardest rain of the season fell Tuesday evening. Rocks weighing 15 to 20 pounds washed down the streets almost the same as straw. A great deal of hillside land that had been freshly plowed was washed clear off. The town branch got higher than it had been before in several years. The water ran over the bridge at the lower end of town.

—Married.—On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. N. M. Shumate, of Paint Lick, and Miss Maggie Adams, of this place, were married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. C. W. Adams, by Elder M. R.
Moore, in his usual beautiful and impressive manner. Only a few particular friends were present; there were no invitations. The attendants were Miss Mollie Tatum, of Crab Orchard, and John B. Fish; Mrs. Mollie Lovell and James Maret, of this place. Everything went off lovely as a marriage bell, barring the fact that we failed to get to kiss the bride. A few of the small boys assisted by some of the larger ones and a few negroes made a hideous with their cowbells, tin horns, pans, etc.

—The most pernicious law ever passed by any Legislature, is the one which allows an incompetent magistrate to call before him any person that he thinks proper and swear him to answer generally any questions he may be asked, thereby usurping the power and authority of the grand jurist. I have heard, but don't know it to be true, though I have good grounds for believing it, that Bal. Chumley was taken into an office in this town, where he was promised his liberty if he would make affidavits against certain parties at Pine Hill and Livingston. Affidavits were prepared and Chumley was sworn to them.
Chumley was not liberated but was put to work on the streets to pay his fine. He will not make any more affidavits. The proper authorities ought to have sense and judgment enough to not turn their procedures into persecutions.

The strongest and bravest document Abraham Lincoln ever penned was a brief message which he urged upon Congress not only the honesty, but the duty of the Government paying the loyal citizens of Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky the value of the slave property of which they were deprived by the emancipation proclamation.

In 1870, Hon. Garrett Davis offered a resolution in the Federal Senate directing a specified committee to report an act in accordance with Mr. Lincoln's suggestion, in support of which Mr. Bayard delivered an excellent and able speech. This speech is now raked up against him by the Washington correspondent of the Courier Journal in the interest of McDonald. —[Breakridge News.]

We all remember the story of Peter the Great, of Russia, who, when in London, seeing the gentlemen of the green bag in great crowds attending the courts and inquiring who they were and what they did, upon being told that they were those who frequented the courts and lived upon the generosity of their fellow man, replied that in all the boundaries of his territories there were but two, and he would hurry home, and have them arrested, tried and shot.— [Judge Barnum.]

A Marylander explained to the doctor:
"I had an old cartridge in my revolver on which I had snapped twenty times without exploding it. I said to myself, 'I bet if I point this revolver at my finger this blamed cartridge will go off.' I tried it and it did explode. That is how it happened."

The most successful counterfeit of the dime is said to be made of glass mixed with some base metal by a process unknown to ordinary workers in metal and glass. The counterfeit looks exactly like the genuine ten-cent piece, but on being struck with a hammer is crushed to pieces.

It is not often that a city girl gets her ankle bit by a snake, but one did in Louisville this week and is likely to die on account of it. The same old serpent seems to continue to hanker after the female deendants of Mother Eve.

Dyspepsia in its worst form will yield to the use of Carter's Little Liver Pills aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress, but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

PAINT LICK, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. F. M. Lutes and wife returned home from Kansas Friday. They are very much pleased with the country.

—Flies and rats are about to take this part of the country. Everybody is hunting fly paper and "Rough on Rats."

—The Best boys at this writing are still at large. Everybody in the county is sympathizing with their distressed mother.

—One of our young men left Tuesday night on the 7:58 train on his way to Mt.
Vernon to take unto himself a better half.

—Rev. J. G. Pond, of Kirksville, will commence a protracted meeting at Walnut-ta College on the fourth Sunday in this month.

—Harvest is about over and farmers say that the wheat is not thick on the ground, but the heads are good and the yield will be fair.

—Harry Castleman, the giant baby, was here on exhibition this week. He is the largest baby of his age in the world. He is six years old and tips the beam at 160 pounds.

—Why is it that our candidates don't come around and give us a little chin music? We can hear of them speaking at all the little towns, but they give us the go-by.
There are several voters in this vicinity who are not fully determined which way they will go. If Durham and McCreary will come up and give us some of their views, perhaps they can convert some of the almost persuaded ones.

—Mrs. Willis Adams, Sr., has been losing a good many chickens. She found one morning 17 killed with their legs only exposed and body not touched. She thought it strange and resolved to look out for the intruder. Mr. Adams heard a disturbance among the chickens one night and went out and found his dog in the coop, having a picnic on chicken legs. He caught the dog by the hind legs and brought him an over-hand lick against the ground a time or two and put his lamp out.

The Boston Herald says: "The voters who refuse to support Blaine and Logan do not pretend to be any better than their neighbors. They simply assert their right of independent judgment and insist that whatever others may do, they must stand by their principles and be true to their convictions. They hold that a nomination unit to be made is not fit to be supported.
The fact that a majority has decreed such nomination does not affect them. Preferences may give way to superior numbers, but principles can not. Mr. Blaine as an individual is agreeable rather than otherwise to the most of those who find him obnoxious and dangerous as a political leader. But it is as a political leader, and to a political office, the greatest in dignity and influence in the gift of the people, that they are asked to accept and elevate him. With their views of proper methods in politics and the true ends of government, they are unable to support such a candidate. If a man is to be called a 'Pharisee' for adhering to his conscientious views, rightfully held, what shall be said of those who stifle their convictions and pocket their principles at the back of a long-lunged party majority? It is wearisome to be obliged to repeat that parties exist as means, not as ends—as instruments to work with, not as the final result. With the professional party follower, everything that succeeds is success. With the citizen whose only interest in parties is to secure decent political and good government, much that succeeds is worse than a failure. His interest in party success is to secure a reduction of burdensome and unnecessary taxes upon the necessities of the people; to extend and perfect the reform in the civil service; to maintain an honest and stable currency and to continue the safe, traditional policy of minding their own business and avoiding either entangling alliances or officious intermeddling in the affairs of other nations.

Neither Blaine nor Logan represents the views and wishes of a large body of republicans and independent voters upon these and other important questions. Why should any man vote the way he does not think is a better alternative is offered him?
Should not a honest man's vote represent a principle rather than a prejudice and conviction rather than cowardice? In addition to these public considerations, it remains to be said that Mr. Blaine's course while in the House created an impression decidedly unfavorable to his personal integrity and that his brief administration in the foreign office proved him to be an intriguing and thoroughly unsafe official, with a natural affinity for the worst elements of his party. His appointments were many of them discreditable, and his so-called 'foreign policy' a compound of blunder and reckless adventure. If it be 'phar-isical' to resist the election of such a mischief-maker and demagogue to the presidency, the sect of the Pharisees will be found to have increased wonderfully before next November."

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The Methodist brethren are holding a protracted meeting at the Christian church.
No additions as yet.

—We had another splendid rain last Tuesday evening. Corn is growing rapidly and the prospect is now very flattering for an abundant crop.

—Brother Bogle was on our streets a few days ago renewing old acquaintances and making some new ones. He will run a "pretty good hickory" in this end.

—Metcalf, the man we spoke of in last Friday's issue as being stabbed to the hollow by unknown parties on Fall Lick, is able to walk around and is likely to recover entirely.

—Everybody is preparing for the coming show. Crowds of small boys and the colored population may be seen almost every hour in the day gazing with open-mouthed admiration at the show papers and asking each other many times, "Do you reckon they will show all there is on the papers?"

—Miss Hattie Frieble and the children of D. B. Edmonson have been spending some days with the family of John Edmonson.
Thomas B. Carson and his pretty young bride are visiting relatives here. Scott Farris is putting the race course in running order and is repairing and remodeling the stables. Scott has the energy and if he had the money would make it second to none in the State. J. T. Lasky, a former citizen of this place, now a popular Cincinnati drummer, is taking a vacation among the friends of his youth.

—LANCASTER.—Maggie Palmer, infant daughter of J. T. Palmer, died on yesterday at 11 o'clock A. M.—R. H. Tomlinson sold to L. F. Hubble 4 shares of stock in the Citizens National Bank at $110 per share.—There are in the county 2,737 white children in school age, classified as follows: 1,363 males against 1,364 females.—Rev.
W. O. Goodloe was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church of Lancaster on Wednesday evening. Dr. Stephen Yerkes preached the sermon. Dr. McKee delivered the charge to the pastor and Rev. J. C. Randolph to the congregation.—The National Bank declared 44 per cent. dividend for the last six months. This bank has a surplus of $85,000 and $17,896.17 in undivided profits.—Dr. N. Mays has a nine-pound boy at his house.—George R. Hardin will be mail messenger from Richmond Junction to Paris.—[News.]

BRO. BOOLE.—Mr. J. G. Pulliam, now one of the editors of the Harrodsburg Democrat, says in that paper: "From the INTERIOR JOURNAL we see that quite a flattering call has been made on Rev. J. A.
Bogle, of Hustonville, to be a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Common Schools of Lincoln county, and that he has accepted. We have no doubt he will make a most excellent officer for the writer knows him well and the worse thing the reverend gentleman ever did was to send in his well written correspondence to the INTERIOR JOURNAL just as they were almost ready to go to press.
Bearing this exception he hardly has a peer in his county. We forgive this now and hope his path may be strewn with flowers, for he is a gentleman and scholar and ought to be elected."

White Muslin This Summer.

It is a pleasing feature of exhibits of summer costumes, particularly of white suits, to see that the old style plain white muslin dress is revived among others more or less ornate with lace and embroidery.
Ready made white lawn dresses have not a particle of embroidery thereon, trimmed only with tucks and ruffles, with the addition of a pretty sash and a large corsage bouquet of roses; these make lovely summer dresses for afternoons on the piazzas at watering places, or at country cottages on the seaside in the months of July and August. Then what can be prettier or nicer to wear at home in the cities, by those who will stay and share the toils and sacrifices of their husbands, than a plain white muslin dress donned after the domestic duties of the day are over, and worn to give the weary bread-winner the pleasure of resting his eyes on something cool and fresh in his own home when he comes in tired and flushed with the heat and dust of the office or store?

If the young women at the summer resorts will be content with such an approach to bareness as can be obtained from very thin white dresses, they will not only be wiser than if they lower the line of covering altogether, but be far more effective in driving male observers distracted. There is nothing more charming to men's eyes than the delicacy and softness which white fluffiness imparts.

—THE GREAT—

BARGAIN STORE

Low Prices Make Business Easy.

Although the weather is hot and oppressive, our trade is continually on the increase. A great many predicted for us a short stay in Stanford, but on the contrary we wish to inform the people of Lincoln county that we are permanently located here and intend to continue to such as can be found nowhere else. We don't have to give chronos to induce people to buy of us. Our success is solely attributed to the wonderfully low prices we mark on our goods. Not a day passes but what we are asked how we can afford to sell goods at such prices. We answer that our buyer in New York is always on the alert hunting up bargains and we give our customers the full advantage of them. Just

A few days ago we received Six Cases Ladies' and Children's Hats, —And as it was a little late in the season, are—

Closing Them Out at Less than One-half Regular Prices.

—They are going fast, too.—

In the last few weeks we have sold twelve dozen Dr. Warner's $1 Corsets at the extremely low price of 75c each,

Which is less than wholesale prices. Are about out of them now, but will shortly have others at as great a bargain.

BOOTS & SHOES

In this department our trade has been immense. All the reason we can give is because we save you from 25c to $1 per pair on same class of goods sold elsewhere.

HATS AND CAPS.

From the amount we have sold one would suppose that every man and boy in the county had one of our hats; but the trade in this line does not seem to fall off any. Our men's fine Straw Hats at 50 cents are a big bargain. They are fully worth double the money; men's Stiff Hats at $1, $1.50 and $1.75, worth from $2.50 to $3. Another lot of men's soft Fur Hats at $1.25 each. Boys' Wool Hats 10, 15 and 25 cents.

GLOVES & HOSIERY.

A job lot of Ladies' Silk Gloves, assorted colors, at 45 cents to close; worth 75 cents; 300 pair Ladies' White Cotton Hose, slightly soiled, at the unheard of price of 5 cents per pair; worth 20 cents. Other goods in proportion.

CLOTHING.

Boys' Wool Knee Pants 25 cents per pair; Boys' Good Wool mixed Suits $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.50 and $3, running from four to eight years old; 25 Child's all-wool kilt Suits, from a New York sheriff's sale, slightly soiled, at $1.50 and $2; worth double; sizes from 2 to 6 years. Don't fail to see them.

Over 8,000 Spools of Our Machine Thread Distributed through the County.

It is soft finish, 6 cord, 200 yards on a spool, Warranted to work on any machine and we sell two spools for 5 cents. You can get it nowhere else.

As we receive goods almost every day

You will Always Find something New at Our Store.

After you have looked all over town, come here and note the difference in prices. You will find our goods all marked in plain figures and if not as represented, your money will be cheerfully returned. We especially ask those that can to come in during the week and not wait until Saturday, as we are so rushed then that we can't give you the attention we would like to. Follow the crowd and you will be sure to find the place.
